

False Claims Act Policy

The Kelberman Center is committed to prompt, complete and accurate billing of all services. The Kelberman Center and its employees, contractors and agents shall not make or submit any false or misleading entries on any bills or claim forms, and no employee, contractor or agent shall engage in any arrangement or participate in such an arrangement at the direction of another person, including any supervisor or manager, that results in such prohibited acts.

All contractors shall conduct themselves in accordance with high standards for ethical business practices and shall comply with applicable laws and regulations related to its work with The Kelberman Center. The contractor will never knowingly, with deliberate ignorance, or reckless disregard make or present, or cause anyone else to make or present, improper, false, or fraudulent claims to any government or private entity. All contractors must confirm that they have not been disqualified or excluded by any government agency before agreements are authorized and executed.
